PCBB Announces International Services Manager
Patricio A. Morillo Named International Services Manager

WALNUT CREEK, CA – December 16, 2015 – Pacific Coast Bankers' Bank (PCBB), a national financial services leader serving community banks, announced today a key promotion to its International Services team. Patricio A. Morillo has been named International Services Manager.

Morillo, a North Carolina native and based in PCBB's Winston-Salem location, has been with PCBB since 2009. Morillo has over 36 years of international banking experience and combined with his commitment to helping community bankers build and retain customer relationships, he has proven to be a key contributor to the growing volume of international solutions PCBB provides to community banks.

"Patricio's knowledge and dedication to community banks has made him the ideal candidate for this key position," said Steve Brown, President and Chief Executive Officer. He adds, "Patricio has been instrumental in the development of International Services at PCBB and in this new position he will continue to grow the business and work closely with our client banks in support of their banking needs."

PCBB was founded by bankers to help community banks build stronger institutions. PCBB does not compete with our community bank clients for their customer's business. Today, PCBB provides community banks across the nation with comprehensive products and services, including correspondent banking, performance, lending and consulting solutions.
